Greeting and Prayer

M: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

We have come together to seek God's comfort in our sorrow and to rejoice in the promise of the resurrection. Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who said, "Come to me all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."

Let us pray.

O everlasting God, with honor and affection we remember Jonathan Bradley Brussow and all those who have gone before us in the Christian faith. Keep us united with them through faith and love toward you, that hereafter we too may enter into your presence through repentant faith and be numbered with those who serve you and look upon your face in glory everlasting, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Psalmody Psalm 93

M: The LORD reigns, he is robed in majesty;
the LORD is robed in majesty and armed with strength;
indeed, the world is established, firm and secure.

Your throne was established long ago;
you are from all eternity.

The seas have lifted up, LORD,
the seas have lifted up their voice;
the seas have lifted up their pounding waves.
Mightier than the thunder of the great waters,
mightier than the breakers of the sea—
the LORD on high is mighty.

Your statutes, LORD, stand firm;
holiness adorns your house
for endless days.

*With the Word of God
this funeral service,
comforts the bereaved and confesses
the Church's lasting
hope in the resurrection of the dead in Christ.*

Sermon

Apostles Creed

C: I believe in God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
